An employee of the A & B Roofing Co., Arendtsville, he was identified as Ralph Heffner, Orrtanna R. 1.

According to eye witnesses, Heffner slipped from the roof of the Chambersburg Recreation Department, S. Third St., at 4:20 p.m. Monday and fell onto the pavement below. He was working at the northeastern edge of the building, above the gymnasium.

Witnesses said his fall was partially broken when he grabbed onto spouting. His body brushed metal hand rails adjacent to a stairwell of the gymnasium.

Fellow workers, who were too far away to save the man from the fall, said he slipped on newly applied tar, and fell face downward.

The Arendtsville firm is installing a new roof over a major portion of the building.

PEACE RULING PROVIDES FINE IN BIGLERVILLE

Biglerville borough council at their meeting Tuesday evening adopted a disturbing the peace ordinance prepared by Attorney Donald Swope, who explained to council and borough policemen Dale Guise, Sterling Roth, and Roy Kuykendall that boroughs have authority to impose fines up to $100 for violations.

Guise reported excessive loitering on the streets after midnight, and council discussed the need for establishing a curfew but no action was taken.

Council voted to maintain a permanent light at the rear of the school. The safety committee stated that the caution lights at the school are not working properly and steps will be taken to correct them. The sewer committee reported that the chlorinator still is not working and the blower also is not operating. The borough engineer was present and said he will check the blower this week.

Jews Cleared Of Deicide By Episcopalians

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

ST. LOUIS (AP)—In one of the bluntest proclamations of its kind, a major church was on record today as repudiating any special blaming of Jews, now or in the past, for Christ's crucifixion.

The action, taken by the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, dealt with an issue that has locked Roman Catholicism's second Vatican council in prolonged discussion.

"The charge of deicide against the Jews is a tragic misunderstanding of the inner significance of the crucifixion," the Episcopal bishops declared. Deicide means "killing of God."

Former Governor Furcolo Of Massachusetts Named In Bribery Indictment

BOSTON (AP) — Former Democratic Gov. Foster Furcolo of Massachusetts has been indicted for allegedly conspiring to arrange a bribe.

The 53-year-old lawyer, who was governor from 1956 to 1960, was accused of conspiring with four members of the Governor's Council in 1960 to arrange payment of a bribe to gain reappointment of Anthony Dinatale as state commissioner of public works.

The four councilors also were indicted Tuesday in the closing minutes of the life of a special grand jury that has returned more than 150 indictments against 40 persons most of them present or former state officials, and 10 corporations. The jury was in session 8½ months.

One of the 40 indicted has been acquitted.

CHARGES POLITICS

Furcolo said the charge against him was "obviously political" since it was brought

IKE WORKS AND PLAYS GOLF ON 74TH BIRTHDAY

Prescription for a happy birthday: Clear skies and bright sun warmed to 72 degrees and flavored with thousands of greetings from around the world.

That's the kind of weather General Eisenhower had today as he observed his 74th birthday anniversary with a few rounds of golf at the Gettysburg Country Club. He held reporters and photographers Tuesday afternoon as he posed in his Carlisle St. office for his annual birthday photograph, that he hoped for fine weather today to permit him to break a busy work day with a bit of relaxation on the golf course. Hundreds of greeting cards were arriving in every mail.

The former president and his wife will have dinner this evening at the home of Gen. and Mrs. Arthur S. Nevins, Biglerville Rd., who have been friends for many years.

POLITICS ON ANNIVERSARY

Politics played a prominent role, however, when the son and daughter of the Republican presidential and vice presidential candidates arrived at his office at noon to present a birthday remembrance from their parents. Barry Goldwater Jr. and Miss Libby Miller awaited the general in the driveway at the rear of his Gettysburg offices with a "surprise" when he was leaving for lunch. The visit was arranged by the Republican National Committee.

Young Goldwater and Miss Miller presented the former president with a decorated cake and a scroll from the Republican National Committee bearing a birthday tribute.

Asked how he feels as he enters his 75th year, the former president said: "A 74th birthday is serious business but so long as my friends continue to extend such warm greetings I'm going to welcome them."

DEDICATED REPUBLICAN

He said that he wished he could shake the hand of all well-wishers and thank them personally for their expressions, "but, of course, I can't do it."

The most sought-after figure in the current campaign, Eisenhower repeated his dedication to the Republican party and said: "I expect to be one (Republican) until the good Lord makes the decision to take me from this earth."

Eisenhower said he plans to make personal campaign appearances in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Ohio and New Jersey, "and one brief appearance in New York." He discounted the predictions of present polls concerning the November 3 election and cited the 1948 Truman campaign in saying: "They're not

BEATEN FOR SENATE

Furcolo first entered public life in 1948 when he was elected to Congress at the age of 37. He was re-elected in 1950 but resigned during 1952 to accept appointment as state treasurer.

Elected to a full two-year term in that post in the 1952 election, Furcolo then tried for

Eisenhower on his 74th birthday. Dean Burch, National Committee chairman, is at the extreme right. The "surprise" occurred in the driveway at the rear of his Carlisle St. offices as he emerged to go to the farm for lunch. SOROPTIMISTS HEAR ROTH ON WOMAN'S ROLE

G. Henry Roth, a member of the editorial staff of The Gettysburg Times, was the speaker for the Gettysburg Soroptimist Club at its monthly dinner meeting held at the Varsity Diner, Carlisle St., with 32 members and two guests present. He talked on "The Status of Women."

The toastmistress for the dinner was Miss Jane Stallsmith, chairman of the International Goodwill and Understanding committee. The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag, followed by the invocation given by Mrs. Walter Keeney.

Mrs. George Eberhart, co-chairman of the Hospitality committee, read several poems in honor of the following members who were celebrating their birthdays in October: Mrs. Violet Hill, Mrs. Anna Bierer, formerly of Gettysburg; Miss Martha Stallsmith and Mrs. Glenn Guise. She also announced the hostesses for the October 27 business meeting to be held in the REA building, Miss Anna Weaver, chairman; Mrs. H. C. Walker, Miss Evelyn Altoff and Mrs. Samuel Higinbotham, Littlestown.

Mr. Roth gave an amusing history on the "Status of Women" starting from the first book of the Bible and going on to Plato, 427 to 347 B.C., when the Republic proposed a group known as the Guardians, who were to head political activity and stated that "Women are expected to take their full share, except that they are treated as not quite so strong."

THOUSANDS OF CUBANS ARE DRIVEN FROM THEIR HOMES BY HURRICANE ISBELL TODAY

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Isbell struck a savage blow at Cuba's Pinar del Rio Province, drove thousands of Cuban families from their homes, and roared on today toward the Florida Keys and the U.S. mainland.

Havana Radio said houses and buildings collapsed under the battering of 100-mile-an-hour wind, rain and tide in Cuba's westernmost province.

Only one death, a child, was mentioned in broadcasts monitored in Miami, but they indicated that Isbell may have finished a job started by Hurricane Hilda in August — destruction of Cuba's second biggest money crop, tobacco.

Havana itself, the radio said, "will be battered by howling winds and torrential rains" before the hurricane is through

Ladder Truck To Be Displayed Here

A ladder truck which the local fire department is contemplating buying will be at the engine house this evening from 6:30 o'clock on. It will be demonstrated to local firemen and others interested. The vehicle is owned by the York Fire Department and is for sale. It will be displayed at the engine house for several hours tonight.

EMPLOYABLES NOT GETTING RELIEF HERE

In Adams County "there are usually no totally employable persons receiving assistance," it was brought out in discussion at a meeting Tuesday evening of the Adams County Board of Assistance.

The discussion centered about information Miss Leaneore S. Berton, Harrisburg, field representative from the Department of Public Welfare, gave the board on the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 as it may apply to county boards of assistance.

Community plans and projects should be developed, she said, so that all employables are trained or placed in a position to be self-supporting. There would be other areas, also, Miss Berton said, in which county assistance board members would cooperate with other agencies and schools.

POSITION IS OPEN

Mrs. Verna H. Myers, the executive director of public assistance for the board in this county, said there is a need for another caseworker on the county staff. Members were urged to ask interested persons to file applications for the position. Standards of eligibility for the position have changed and a college degree is now one of the requirements, Mrs. Myers said.

An analysis of the county caseload was presented. There are currently eight more cases composed of 42 persons receiving assistance than the figure for one year ago. During the last month, the caseload dropped four cases and 39 persons. On October 1 there were 181 cases and 182 persons receiving old age assistance; blind pension, 112; aid to dependent children, 133 cases and

The visitors had crossed the Maryland line into Pennsylvania Tuesday morning when Sgt. David James, of the local state police barracks, and a club committee "flagged" them down. When Mr. Bradt stepped from his car James approached and, smiling, said, "No trouble, welcome to Pennsylvania and Gettysburg." From then on the surprised couple were guests of the Exchange Club.

WOLFORD AND TAWNEY TRIAL BEGINS TODAY

Trial of Albert L. Wolford, 43, Orrtanna R. 1, and James Edgar Tawney, also 43, Gettysburg R. 2, on charges of receiving stolen property, offering for sale a motor vehicle with an altered serial number and conspiracy, began in Adams County court this afternoon.

The two were accused with Thomas Bowen Stepp, 40, Reading, and Robert John Albright, 26, also of Reading, who have entered pleas of guilty to the charges arising from the bringing here of a stolen truck tractor and its being offered for sale to a local man.

According to police reports at the time of the arrests last April, the truck tractor, valued at $19,500, was stolen at Lancaster last February and driven to Gettysburg where the cab-over-engine diesel tractor was offered to a local man for $10,000. Police said the tractor, when it arrived here, had on it a manufacturer's serial number stolen from a truck in Baltimore.

The local men allegedly entered into the picture when Wolford was told by a truck operator that he could get a job as a driver with that operator when the trucker secured another truck. Wolford allegedly told this opportunity to Tawney. In a story appearing at the time of the arrest of Wolford, Tawney was said to have heard of a truck that could be secured cheap because it was won in a poker game and made inquiries. Shortly thereafter the truck Stepp and Albright admit "receiving" arrived here. The jury will be asked to determine whether the local men were aware that it was a stolen truck, or were victims of circumstances.

Wolford is represented by Attorney Donald G. Oyler. Tawney appeared in court this morning without an attorney and the court appointed Attorney Oscar F. Spicer to represent him.

By 12:30 the jury was still being drawn for the case. Thirty were to be called from which 12 would be chosen.

Wolford, who suffered a broken leg among other injuries in a recent accident, appeared in court today on crutches, with his left leg in a cast.

Hatcher is also charged before the justice by state police with tendering to the investigating officer his driver's license as if it had not been revoked; charged with failing to surrender the license to the state after its revocation and with making a false affidavit to the state that he had lost his operator's card. Fines on the latter three charges, the justice said, total $200 plus costs, in addition to whatever sentence the court may impose on the two charges of driving after revocation.

TRUMAN FALLS IN BATH TUB; GETS SHINER

By HUELL E. WARREN JR.
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Harry S. Truman had planned to hold a news conference today, but instead the 80-year-old former president was in Research Hospital nursing two cracked ribs and a banged-up right eye.

He fell into a bathtub Tuesday at the big old Truman home in nearby Independence. He told Dr. Wallace Graham, his physician since he went to the White House in 1945, that the bath mat slipped as he was getting ready to bathe.

A severe cut over his right eye required stitches. His glasses shattered and sliced his right eyelid in several places. He had bruises on the right eyebrow and forehead.

HAS A SHINER

After an ambulance trip to the hospital, some patching in the emergency room and X-rays, Truman was pronounced in satisfactory condition.

Robert E. Adams, executive director of the hospital, said Truman was alert, cheerful, fully conscious and joking. Adams said the eye wasn't a full-blown shiner but showed a lot of discoloration.

The hospital posted him as "satisfactory, resting easily" through the night.

Dr. Graham said there was nothing to indicate Truman had a fainting or dizzy spell.

"He's all right, there's nothing serious about it at all," Mrs. Truman said in a telephone conversation with their daughter, Mrs. Clifton Daniel, in New York.

TIMED CONFAB

The former president did not disclose the purpose of the news conference he had called for today, but its timing coincided with Sen. Barry Goldwater's appearance in Kansas City.

Truman was 80 on May 8 and his activities have been at a minimum since that round of celebrating. He was an elected delegate to the Democratic National Convention in August but did not go. An illness kept him from the dedication of the George C. Marshall Memorial Library at Lexington, Va., in May. But he appeared at a Kansas City rally with Sen. Hubert Humphrey late in September.

He worked at his Truman Library office in Independence Tuesday and was driven home shortly after 2 p.m. He fell about two hours later.

The program includes a get-acquainted gathering in the college auditorium, interview with the director of admissions if necessary, consultations with the faculty representative of the student's major department, lunch in the college cafeteria, and a chat with students in the Student Center. Interested students and their parents are asked to write the director of admissions for a reservation form which must be mailed back to the college at least a week prior to the preferred open house date.

If either open house date is inconvenient, visiting days are slated for November 21 and December 12 in 1964, and February 20, March 2, and April 10 in 1965.

Interviews with the director of admissions will be scheduled between one and two o'clock in the afternoon, followed by a student-conducted tour of the campus. It is not necessary to write for an appointment on visiting days.

"CARAVAN" TO BE HERE FRIDAY

One of the eight "Flying Caravans" from the Democratic National Committee, will visit Gettysburg Friday to direct a "Working Coffee Hour" on behalf of the Democratic candidates for state and congressional office.

Heading the caravan will be Mrs. David Brinkley, wife of the well-known NBC commentator, who is making her debut as an active campaigner for the Democratic party, and Mrs. Joseph E. Casey, wife of a former Congressman from Massachusetts.

Mrs. John S. Rice, wife of the former Ambassador to The Netherlands, has opened her home on West Broadway for the "coffee" hour to which approximately 30 Adams County Democratic women have been assigned to attend by the county committee.

Three Democratic candidates will also attend, Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, candidate for the legislature; Neiman Craley, York, candidate for Congress and Gilbert Lupp, candidate for the state senate.

The "Flying Caravans" will visit 26 cities in 19 states from Maine to California between Monday and Friday.

"This is not a fund-raising effort," Mrs. Rice said, "but the most efficient way we know of sending out outstanding Democratic women around the country to insure the local Democrats, both leaders and workers, are thoroughly briefed on the President's plans for a final drive to victory on November 3."

The speaker said. He went on to the old English law that provided "he and she are one, but he's the one," then on to the first guarantee of equal suffrage for women in the U. S. contained in an act of 1869 passed by the territorial legislature of Wyoming. In Washington on August 18, 1920, Roth said, ratification was made of the suffrage amendment to the Constitution, a struggle which had begun in this country before the Colonies declared their independence.

Mr. Roth noted that on August 20, 1920, The Gettysburg Times said the commissioners were "confronted with the task of registering approximately 7,000 women in Adams County." He said there were many problems at that time as to how to classify the occupations of women, but by October 4, 1920, 6,067 women had registered to vote. Mr. Roth said that, according to old records, on November 2, 1920, the women appeared in droves to vote. The first woman to vote in the First ward was Mrs. Howard Hartzell; Second ward, Mrs. Kate Nixon; and Third ward, Miss Lily Dougherty.

The question also came up on December 8, 1920, according to old records, whether names of women should be placed in the jury wheel by Prothonotary G. Harry Roth, but the judge at that time said he saw no necessity for that.

CITES "FIRSTS"
Mr. Roth said that in checking over the "Status of Women" he made the following discoveries: the first physician was Elizabeth Blackwell, 1849; first woman candidate for President, Victoria C. Woodhall, 1872; by the National Radical Reformers; first congresswoman, Jeannette Rankin, elected 1916; first senator, Mrs. Rebecca Lattimore Felton of Georgia, appointed 1922; first elected governor, Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, Wyoming, 1925; first elected senator, Mrs. Hattie Caraway, Arkansas, 1932; first woman cabinet member, Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, 1933, and ended with the first Russian woman cosmonaut, Valentina Tereshkova, in 1963. He concluded by saying, "The status of women will continue to grow as they work in various agencies, the U.N. and UNESCO to further human rights and freedom without distinction of race, sex, language or religion."

Following the talk the meeting was turned over to Mrs. H. W. Baker, president, who announced that reservations would be taken for the United Nations Day dinner by the Kiwanis Club with various service clubs joining in the celebration, to be held October 19 at the Holiday Inn. She also told of attending the district conference at Hazleton October 9-11 accompanied by Mrs. Henry Bream, vice president; Mrs. Donald Carver, delegate, and Miss Stallsmith.

Mrs. Glenn Guise, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced the club had 231 members in the merchandise club at the Mary Edith Shop, and that the first two drawings will be made Saturday. She reminded the members of the card party to be held in the REA building on November 12.

The draw prize was donated by Mrs. Guise and won by Miss Stallsmith.

The following members were in charge of the dinner: Miss Stallsmith, Mrs. Harry Manning, Mrs. H. C. Walker, Mrs. Keeney, assisted by Mrs. Fred Faber, Mrs. James Knox, Mrs. George Boehner and Miss Julia Peters.

COMPLAINTS ON SPEEDING IN BOROUGH

Complaints about speeding by motorists on South St., McSherrystown, were received from about 15 residents of the street at the monthly meeting of the McSherrystown council Monday night.

The complainants claimed many drivers who formerly traveled on Main St. now use South St. since it was resurfaced.

The councilmen assured the group that South and other streets in the community will be more heavily patrolled in the future to enforce traffic laws.

Council approved Mayor Edward DeCheubell's suggestion that a base telephone be installed at police headquarters with an extension to the home of each member of the police staff. The police phone now is an extension of the borough office line. Mayor DeCheubell suggested the change would make it unnecessary to call more than one number when the services of a patrolman were needed.

PAY FOR MASEMER

Council was informed that unauthorized persons had spread animal fat-based oil on an alley between Fifth and North Sts., resulting in a nuisance since the oil did not soak into the ground. Donald Krepps, chairman of the highways committee, reported owners of a neighboring diner, a drug store and some homes complained about the substance being carried indoors. Krepps said the persons responsible have agreed to reimburse the borough for the expense of remedying the alley situation. He cautioned residents against placing unauthorized substances on public streets or alleys.

A voucher for $407.50 was authorized for payment to Marnard Masemer, whose resignation from the police department was formally accepted September 17. The payment was in compliance with an Adams County Court ruling that Masemer should be given salary not paid him during a period of suspension as chief of police.

"OH MY DARLING"

Oh my darling cuddle closer
... nearer to my heart ...
let me feel the wonder of you
... for I'm blue when we're apart ... life for me is without meaning ... until you are in my arms ... but I revel in the splendor ... of your most endearing charms
... your love is a magic tonic
... quenching that for which I thirst ... filling me with great elation ... till it seems my heart will burst ... shower me with tender kisses ...
these say more than idle words ... for your kisses set me sailing ... up to heaven like the birds ... oh my darling, I implore you ...
lock me in your warm embrace ... perhaps I can make you realize ... no one else can take your place.

The Wetzels recently returned to their home in Solley, Md., from a three-week hunting trip to Newfoundland, Canada.

Mrs. Wetzel, who did not get her game until the second week, outdid her husband when she shot a 16-point, double-shovel caribou and a 47-inch spread moose. Mr. Wetzel shot a single-shovel, 17-point caribou and a 40-inch spread moose the first week of hunting.

The Wetzels were outfitted by R. W. Skinner of Pasadena Corner-Brook, Newfoundland, and were flown into the bush 70 miles where they camped at Rocky Ridge Park for the first week and then moved to Robinson River Pond where Mrs. Wetzel brought down her game.

Each missed one shot at a black bear on a lake with waves rocking their boat.

Today's Talk

GOOD NEWS

It has been said that nothing is quite so sensational as the truth. Perhaps that is true because we hear so little of it spoken, and learn of so few advertised who speak it and live it. We read plenty about those who have never met, or in any way have become familiar with, the truth. They get front page note. It is argued that it lessens crime and evil-doing by giving the news of them wide publicity.

If publicizing crime lessens it, then to publicize, in greater measure, the deeds of those who never commit it, would, it seems to me to be better sense! The good deeds of many an obscure and beloved human being could well deserve front page space in any of our newspapers. Perhaps, even, to do this might surprise many an inhabitant of the city or town in which such a superior person might live.

There ought to be more told about the good and solid people of this world, who go about minding their own business, asking odds of no one, content to live decently, courageously, and as good neighbors to all. Yes, that is fine, and how we would welcome such stories, yet such folks are the very ones who want no notice, no publicity, content alone to live honestly and undisturbed.

There isn't a day but what many an unusual story of some human being could be so written as to be worthy of note. We need to know more about the ones who really do the big job in this world of ours — the common folks. Common in name only — not in mind, heart, or performance. What a lift to morale for us to read each day in our newspapers GOOD news — bad news being only supplementary!

What a sensation would be created, for many, by the mere publication of The Twenty-third Psalm. The Sermon on the Mount, or the Golden Rule, on the front page of a newspaper, boxed up as the leading feature for that day! It sure would help to take the bad taste out of one's mind, of many a story in a neighborhood, of evil doing, or of some tragic disaster.

We need to be faced with Good News, with which to begin the day. Good beginnings are always important, in fact essential to a happy and successful day.

SET RECORDS ON AIR ATTACK

NEW YORK (AP) — Collegiate football passers are surpassing themselves this season. Tulsa, passing leader among major colleges for the past two seasons, Baylor, Iowa and Arizona State each have thrown for more yards than any team had thrown at the same stage last year, according to NCAA figures released today. And last season was a record year for the country's passers.

Tulsa, with 260.3 yards per game, Baylor with 247.7 yards, Iowa with 236.7 yards and Arizona State with 236 yards lead the major colleges in passing.

Tulsa, beaten once, also leads in total offense with 446 yards per game, Yale following with 422 yards. Yale leads major college ground gainers with an average of 321.7 yards. Scoring leader is Utah State — scoring champion in 1961 and 1963 — averaging 44 points.

Despite its total offense figure, Tulsa does not place among the rushing leaders; Yale, reciprocating, does not appear among the passing leaders.

Tulsa obviously is making passes pay off. The Hurricanes are second in scoring to Utah State with a 38.7 point average.

NEW SPEED MARK SET ON UTAH'S FLATS

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah (AP) — A jubilant Craig Breedlove has regained the title as the fastest man on wheels and obviously was determined today to keep it as long as possible.

For one thing, the 28-year-old Los Angeles speedster said he would try to improve on his land speed record of 468.72 miles per hour, set Tuesday in his jet-powered car "Spirit of America."

For another, he said he had reserved the track at these western Utah salt flats until Oct. 26 and plans to keep it every minute of that time.

It's possible winter weather could set in by that time, forcing other contenders to wait until next year. The salt flats is one of the few places in the world that are suitable for record speed runs.

Even if Breedlove can keep the record for only two weeks, that will be longer than the past two record holders — Art Arfons of Akron, Ohio, and Tom Green of Wheaton, Ill.

Arfons, who had the old record of 434.02 m.p.h., said Tuesday he is confident he can beat Breedlove's mark. He has another reservation in for the flats for Nov. 8 but wants to come sooner.

Breedlove, who set one land speed record last year, sped across the salt flats Tuesday in times of 442.59 and 498.13 in two runs over the one-mile track. The record time was computed from total time and distance of both runs.

Crafts Club Hears Talk By Teacher

Billy Newman of the art department of the Littlestown High School showed the members of the Arts and Crafts Club the procedure for making Christmas cards at the October meeting Monday evening in the Eagles' social room.

At the business session, for which Mrs. Glenn K. Flinchbaugh, president, was in charge, it was reported that the recent trip to the New York World's Fair and the trip to Washington, which the club sponsored were both successes.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Flinchbaugh and Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly. Mrs. John F. Feeser Jr. will show the group how to make candles at the next meeting on November 9. Interested persons are invited to attend. Hostesses will be Mrs. Bernadine Rickrode and Mrs. Conrad C. Hull.

LION IS SIDELINED

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Jock West, Penn State sophomore defensive end, will be out of action for the remainder of the football season because of a sprained right knee, team officials announced Monday.

A spokesman said West, who injured his knee in the Lion's 6-2 victory over Army last weekend, would undergo surgery today at Geisinger Medical Center in Danville.

Littlestown Bolts 6-Unit School Plan; Girl, 15, Is Given Withdrawal Permit

The Littlestown Joint School Board Tuesday evening authorized its attorney to relay to the county board's legal representative the board's recent action reversing its opinion on a six-unit plan for the county school reorganization, and issued a school withdrawal permit to a 15-year-old girl whose mother said that "some of the things" taught in public schools are contrary to the family's religion.

The board rescinded its original opinion favoring six units in the county plan and informed the state board of education that Littlestown now favors a single unit for the county. Representatives of the board will appear at the appeals hearing scheduled for November 4 in Harrisburg.

TAKE 3 VOTES

In the matter involving the withdrawal of a 10th Grade student from school, the board voted three times to break a tie. Three of the 19 members present passed their votes on the first two rounds but on a roll call vote 11 members voted to issue the permit with eight members opposing.

The girl, who will be 16 years of age on Monday, appeared before the board with her mother, who said her daughter this year has been attending a church-operated school which is unable to grant a high school certificate of graduation. Paul E. King, supervising principal of the Littlestown schools, told the board that the girl was a good student prior to transferring to the church school this year. The mother said she feels that her daughter can learn more "working on the farm" than she can learn in school and that "we need her at home to help to care for two small children and the farm work." King told the board that the state permits issuance of permanent withdrawals for religious sects under the circumstances.

CHANGE CURRICULUM

King reported that the school curriculum has been changed to permit pupils to enroll in more courses and announced that four student teachers from Gettysburg College have reported to the high school. They are Charles Rose, mathematics; Mark Snyder, health and physical education; Anthony Emery, French, and Ann Fisher, health and physical education.

He said that arrangements have been made for all Seniors to take tests measuring aptitudes for mechanics, electronics, administration and general.

French is being continued in two sections of Fourth Grade and all Fifth and Sixth Grade units, and string instructions, already underway in Fifth and Sixth Grades, will be started soon in the Fourth Grade, he said. Three rooms in the basement of the elementary school are in use this year and both libraries are in operation.

The board approved bills for payment in the amount of $47,433.06, of which $26,524.32 was for payroll. Receipts of $62,167.08 were reported by the treasurer.

Yanks Need Near Miracle Today; Bouton, Simmons To Take Mound For Sixth

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) — The proud New York Yankees, straining to avert their second straight World Series disaster for the first time in 42 years, were hoping for a near miracle as they faced the front-running St. Louis Cardinals in the do-or-die sixth game today.

Down three games to two — just one away from elimination — Yankee Manager Yogi Berra pinned his hopes on the right arm of 25-year-old Jim Bouton in a return mound engagement with Cardinal veteran southpaw Curt Simmons.

The two hooked up in the third game with Bouton the winner, 2-1, on Mickey Mantle's dramatic ninth-inning home run at Yankee Stadium. The blast came off reliever Barey Schultz' first pitch.

HERCULEAN TASK

Even should the Yankees win today, a Herculean task still faces the American League champions. They are admittedly shy on pitching because of the uncertainty of Whitey Ford's physical condition.

On the other hand, Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane's pitching is in fine shape.

Simmons, of course, will be pitching with his normal four-day rest. Should a seventh game be necessary, Keane has the choice of one of three pitchers — southpaw Ray Sadecki, right-hander Roger Craig or Bob Gibson, who struck out 13 in a brilliant winning performance in the fifth game Monday.

BERRA WORRIED

Ford's condition has Berra worried. The veteran southpaw, who aggravated an old heel injury in an opening game loss in St. Louis, hasn't worked since. He did no throwing at Yankee Stadium Tuesday and must remain a doubtful quantity.

If Ford cannot make it, young Mel Stottlemyre undoubtedly will get the pitching nod in the seventh game, if needed. The 22-year-old rookie right-hander pitched a tough seven innings Monday but wasn't charged with the 5-2 10-inning defeat.

It was his second fine effort, coming four days after he had beaten the Cardinals 8-3 in the second game.

WON 20 OF 26

A defeat on top of their four straight losses to the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1963 would mark the first time the Yankees have lost two post-season classics in succession since their back-to-back losses to the New York Giants in 1921 and 1922. Since then they've won 20 out of 26.

The Cardinals haven't fared badly in World Series play, either. A victory would give them seven of 10 and three of five against the Yankees.

Keane, whose Cardinals engaged in a 1½-hour workout at Busch Stadium Tuesday, continued to play it cautious, refusing to make any predictions. He did acknowledge, however, that the Cards were now in the best shape they've been in the entire Series.

"Knowing we can win by taking one of two is bound to give us the edge," he said. "But I'm not underestimating the Yankees. They're a tough ball club."

"We've gotten the breaks so far but we've taken advantage of them. We've also had a few bad breaks but we've overcome them. The Yankees haven't."

"Take Tom Tresh's game-tying home run off Gibson in the ninth inning Monday. That was enough to knock out almost any club. But we bounced right back with three runs in the next inning."

MAXWILL SURPRISES

"It's a good thing we did. I don't think Gibson could have pitched much longer. He was a tired young man at the end."

Keane had hoped Julian Javier would be recovered sufficiently from his hip injury to return to the line-up for the sixth game. He had to abandon the idea, however, when his star second baseman complained of pain when he swung a bat.

Javier hasn't played at all except for two innings in a substitute role in the opener.

Meantime, young Dad Maxvill has surprised everybody with his fine all-around play as Javier's substitute. The St. Louis lad has not only fielded well but has contributed several timely hits which figured in run scoring.

TEXAS STAYS ON TOP IN AP GRIDIRON POLL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

That blur that flew past the other teams in The Associated Press' college football poll this week was Illinois but the flight was a bumpy one and worse than that, it was in the wrong direction.

The Illini, ranked No. 2 in last week's AP poll of sports writers and broadcasters, took on fourth-ranked Ohio State last Saturday and came out on the short end of a 26-0 score.

The impressive victory moved the Buckeyes into the No. 2 slot and dropped Illinois right out of the Top Ten. But the Illini slide off the poll wasn't a lonely one. Kentucky and Michigan State, both thumped on Saturday, also dipped out of sight.

Texas continued to top the poll with 30 first-place votes of the 40 ballots cast and 337 points. Ohio State had seven first-place ballots and 344 points in the voting which awards 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1. Texas (30)	387
2. Ohio State (7)	347

Sooner Is Named Lineman Of Week

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — "I'd feel lots better if we had won the game," said Oklahoma University's Carl McAdams when asked how it felt to be named The Associated Press' Lineman of the Week.

McAdams, 6-foot-3, 215-pound center-linebacker, referred to the Sooners' 28-7 loss to Texas last Saturday.

In that intersectional contest, McAdams, a junior, made 13 unassisted tackles and helped in five others. He beat out Dwight Kelley of Ohio State for the weekly award. Kelley made 10 tackles in the Buckeyes' 26-0 thrashing of Illinois.

Braves In Last Home Contest On Thursday

By TED SMITS

Associated Press Sports Editor

Gettysburg Junior High School's football team will play its final home game of the season Thursday afternoon when it is host to unbeaten Waynesboro East in a South Penn Junior High League game. The kickoff will be at 3:45.

East is tied with Carlisle for first place in the league with a 2-0 record as the result of victories over Scotland 26-13 and Chambersburg 14-13. In a non-league game the Bulldogs defeated South High of Hagerstown 33-14.

The Braves are 2-1 in the league and must win over East to retain their title hopes.

Other league games Thursday include Chambersburg Faust at Carlisle, and Waynesboro West at Scotland.

PICKS TEXAS, OHIO STATE AND IRISH TO WIN

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

TOKYO (AP) — The emblem of the Olympics is five interlocking rings, representing five continents. That gives any football selector plenty of room in which to run around — in circles.

Last week's average of .661 made the season's record .670. From a slightly Oriental viewpoint, here are the coming weekend's winners:

Texas over Arkansas: If there is one college football team that can jump from the frying pan into the fire, week after week, it is this year's Longhorn aggregation.

ALABAMA AND MICHIGAN

Ohio State over Southern California: Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State doesn't concentrate on non-conference foes but he will want to show the television viewers his new off-tackle play. Tom Barrington is a handy-dandy.

Alabama over Tennessee: The Volunteers have nobody who can equal Joe Namath.

Notre Dame over UCLA: The Irish line suddenly has become respectable.

Michigan over Purdue: The Wolverines have oodles and oodles of talent, including quarterback Bob Timberlake.

Nebraska over Kansas State: The Huskers can run and run.

Kentucky over Louisiana State: The Wildcats, thin in numbers, will be trying to make up for that awful thumping given them by Florida State.

Auburn over Georgia Tech: If Jimmy Sidle and his playmates are going to hit high gear this year, this should be the game.

Syracuse over Penn State: Syracuse didn't issue the same number 44 to halfback Floyd Little that previously had been worn by Jimmy Brown and Ernie Davis just because he passed freshman English.

Navy over California: Wayne Hardin's crew gets back on the right track.

England's Mary Rand broke the world record with a leap of 22 feet, 2½ inches in winning the women's broad jump. Irna Kirszenstei of Poland was second and Tatyna Schelkanova of Russia, whose record Miss Rand broke, third.

U. S. IS SURPRISE

The United States was not expected to place in either event.

Yankee runners, however, placed a maximum complement of three in two other track semifinals, the 100 meters and the 400-meter hurdles.

Bob Hayes, the Florida A&M flash; Trenton Jackson of Rochester, N.Y., and Mel Pender, a stocky Army sergeant from Atlanta, Ga., went through two rounds of 100 meter trials, with Hayes, best time through steady drizzle a 10.3, well off his best performance of 10.1.

Rex Cawley, Los Angeles; Billy Hardin, Baton Rouge, La., whose father won the event in the 1936 Games, and Jay Luck, a Yale graduate, qualified for the finals in the 400-meter hurdles, with Cawley's time of 50.8 seconds the best among the Americans.

The U.S. basketball team, which has never lost in Olympic competition, racked up an 83-28 rout of little Uruguay, its fourth straight in Tokyo.

Holland won a gold medal in the cycling time trial road race and favored Italy was second.

Miss Harmer Wins Swimming Event

TOKYO (AP) — Nina Harmer, of Philadelphia, led Pennsylvanians competing in the Tokyo Olympics Games Monday, with a strong first place in a heat of the women's 100-meter backstroke event.

Miss Harmer was timed in 1:09.8 to win the heat and qualify for today's finals.

Meanwhile, the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia moved into the eight-oared shell championship, beating Japan and Korea. Italy and Yugoslavia also gained the finals.

Young Marine Lieutenant Stages Olympics Upset By Winning 10,000 Meter Run

By TED SMITS

Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) — Courageous Billy Mills, a Marine from Coffeyville, Kan., won the 10,000-meter run today in one of the greatest upsets in the history of the Olympic Games, and Ken Sitzberger led a 1-2-3 American sweep of medals in springboard diving.

Mills, a 26-year-old crew-cut Marine lieutenant, was timed in an Olympic record 28:24.4 after pulling away from world record-holder Ron Clarke. It was the first time the United States had ever won at 10,000 meters.

Sitzberger, from River Forest, Ill., was third going into the final round but put on a dazzling display of free diving and won the springboard competition with a total of 159.90 points. It was the United States' 10th straight victory in the event.

GORMAN SECOND

Frank Gorman, a naval officer from New York who had led all he way, finished second with 157.63 points and Larry Anderson of Los Alamitos, Calif., was third with 143.77 points.

The sweep, plus Mills' triumph, pushed the U.S. harvest of Olympic hardware to 14 medals, four gold, six silver, four bronze.

Mills, considered far out of his class against one of the finest 10,000-meter fields ever assembled, stayed with the leaders all the way, took the lead to stay on the 20th lap of the six-mile-plus test of courage and endurance, then sprinted home, winning by about four yards.

CLARKE THIRD

In the vast confusion surrounding the finish, Clarke, the Australian world record-holder, was believed to have finished second, but the official results placed him third behind Tunisia's virtually unknown Mohammed Gammoudi.

Gammoudi was timed in 28:24.8, Clarke exactly one second slower.

Mills was considered a rank outsider in the field while the top U.S. hope was little Gerry Lindgren, 18-year-old Spokane, Wash., sensation.

Lindgren, however, was badly hobbled by an ankle he twisted just two days earlier in practice. He competed, but finished far back in the pack.

CHAMP FAILS

Mills' amazing performance dominated this fourth day of the 18th Olympiad in which the United States pushed an expected number of athletes through a variety of track and swimming heats and trials.

Probably the biggest disappointment came in the javelin where Norway's world record holder, Perje Pedersen, failed to make the finals. The event was won by Pauli Nevala, a Finn, with a throw of 271 feet, 2½ inches. Gergely Kulcsar of Hungary was second and Yan Lusin of Russia third.

England's Mary Rand broke the world record with a leap of 22 feet, 2½ inches in winning the women's broad jump. Irna Kirszenstei of Poland was second and Tatyna Schelkanova of Russia, whose record Miss Rand broke, third.

Quarterback Jim Ward, Gaithersburg, Md., and flanker Ken Snyder, Hershey, continue to dominate the Gettysburg College football statistics following the first four contests.

Ward has completed 45 of 86 passes for 506 yards, seven touchdowns and three conversions. Three of his aeriels have been intercepted. The 6'2", 190 pound junior is the team's leader in total offense with 121 plays for 546 yards and paces the squad in punting with 17 boots for a 32.8 average.

Snyder, the Bullets' captain, is leading the team in pass receiving with 20 catches for 309 yards and five touchdowns. He is also the top scorer with 32 points.

PRESOGNA THIPD

As a result of his 110-yard performance against Albright, Curwensville's Tony Presogna has taken a solid lead in rushing and has moved into the number two spot in total offense. Presogna has carried the ball 55 times for 238 yards and a 4.3 average.

The team totals reveal that the Bullets have run the ball 152 times and have passed 141 times. With the pro-type offense, Gettysburg is considered strictly a throwing team. The Bullets have picked up 413 yards on the ground compared the opponents' 623.

Haas' squad has gained 796 yards in the air and the four opponents have gained 344 passing. The Bullets are outscoring their opponents to the tune of 76-52.

Gettysburg opened the season with a 27-7 win over Hofstra then followed with a 12-7 decision over Bucknell and a 22-19 upset victory over Delaware. Albright came along last Saturday and upended the Battlefields 19-15.

BIG PROGRAM FOR BULLETS THIS WEEKEND

The annual Father's Weekend will be observed at Gettysburg College this weekend with the highlight being the Middle Atlantic Conference university division football battle between the Bullets and the Engineers of Lehigh Saturday afternoon at 1:30.

Besides the grid battle, fathers will also be able to witness the Freshmen clash with Columbia Prep, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock; the freshman soccer game with the Johns Hopkins frosh, Friday at 3 p.m., and the varsity soccer engagement with Muhlenberg, Saturday morning at 1 o'clock. The cross country squad will be idle this weekend.

Gettysburg and Lehigh have met on the gridiron 32 times since the first meeting in 1915. The Engineers have won 18 contests. Gettysburg has captured 10 and four have ended in deadlocks. The Bullets copped a 24-20 decision a year ago to snap a nine-game winning streak by Lehigh. Gettysburg won six of its games in consecutive contests played between 1930 and 1946.

Coach Gene Haas' Battlefields started out in a blaze winning over Hofstra, Bucknell and Delaware, but had their wings clipped Saturday night when Albright pulled a 19-15 upset under the lights in Reading. Mike Cooley's Engineers are winless in their three outings having dropped a 13-6 verdict to Penn; a 54-0 clobbering at the hands of Yale; and a 20-7 loss to Rutgers.

NAME TENSI

Back Of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When you find a tall quarterback who can pass, he's an asset to any football team. When you find the rare one who can pass, fake expertly and call a game that confuses the opposition, he's a prize beyond value. When a quarterback does that against a team that upset major opponents in its last two games — he's Steve Tensi.

Tensi, the 6-foot-5 Florida State senior quarterback, did all those things against Kentucky last Saturday and as a result he was named The Associated Press Back of the Week today.

Kentucky had upset Mississippi 27-21 and Auburn 20-0 before running into Florida State. But Tensi picked the Wildcat defense apart so expertly that Florida State won by a whopping 48-6 to remain undefeated.

The New York Yankees beat Kansas City 12 times in 18 meetings this year.

G-BURG DROPS SOCCER TILT TO DELAWARE

The Gettysburg College soccer team suffered its fourth setback in five games when the University of Delaware Blue Hens captured a 4-1 decision here Tuesday afternoon.

The Blue Hens, entering the game with an 0-2 record, banged in a goal of the 11:20 mark of the first period and were never behind. Bob Larsons, on an assist from Toy Lyon, tallied the initial point. Bob Hassenstein shoved the visitors into a 2-0 lead with an unassisted goal at 6:05 of the second period.

Gettysburg bounced into the scoring column with its lone tally at 15:50 of the second stanza. John Colestock took a pass from Bob Button and rifled the shot into the nets.

Delaware made it 3-1 at the half with a goal at the 17:00 minute mark when Larsons banged in his second goal of the game. The Blue Hens closed out the scoring in the fourth period when Lyon tallied from the right side.

Gettysburg's Bill Huber recorded nine saves throughout the game while Blue Hen goalie Jim Murray came up with 11.

Gettysburg will attempt to get back on the winning trail when it tangles with Muhlenberg Saturday morning in an 11 o'clock contest.

Many Women Candidates In State, National Races

By FRANCIS STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—A number of women holding high state and national offices are bidding for re-election this year, and a great many more have jumped into the political fray for the first time.

A few of the newcomers could make political history in their respective states if they win.

In general, the lady candidates tend to voice the belief that they can do just as good a job—and maybe even better—than the menfolk.

Some unusual situations developed as the staff division doffed aprons to battle for ballots.

WOMAN VS. WOMAN

In several major races it's a woman vs. woman showdown. A 74-year-old woman is seeking a ninth term in the Massachusetts State Senate.

Men have plumb given up trying for the office of secretary of state in New Mexico.

An Iowa woman has a chance to become the first Negro to serve in her state's legislature.

NONE IN SOME STATES

In several states there isn't a single woman running for state-wide or congressional office.

Among those seeking re-election are several veteran congresswomen.

One of the most prominent is Rep. Frances P. Bolton, Ohio Republican who has served since 1939. She was the first woman elected to Congress in Ohio.

Others include Reps. Katharine St. George, New York Republican first elected in 1946; Edna F. Kelly, New York Democrat who has served since 1949; Leonor K. Sullivan, Missouri Democrat who became the state's first congresswoman in 1952; and Florence P. Dwyer, New Jersey Republican first elected in 1956.

IN PENNA. RACE

Still others are Washington

state's two women representatives, Catherine May, a Republican first elected in 1958, and Julia Hansen, a Democrat who has served since 1960.

A woman candidate for the U.S. Senate this year is Genevieve Blatt, 50-year-old Pennsylvania state secretary of internal affairs and the first woman ever to hold state office in Pennsylvania. She was elected to the state office in 1954 and has been re-elected twice.

Miss Blatt, a Democrat, is running against Republican Sen. Hugh Scott. The race is expected to be close.

ANOTHER SENATE RACE

Another senatorial candidate is Mrs. Elly Peterson, a Republican and the first woman nominated by a major party for the post in Michigan. Her opponent is Democratic Sen. Philip Hart.

In Illinois, the fight for the 15th District congressional seat pits a woman against another woman. Republican Rep. Charlotte Reid, a 51-year-old widow who won the seat in 1962, is being opposed by Mrs. Poppy X. Mitchell, 46, a housewife making her first try for political office.

In Kentucky, the only woman running for a major office is Mrs. Frances Mills, 43-year-old Democratic nominee for Congress in the 5th District.

WOULD BE FIRST

If elected she would be the first woman ever to represent the Democratic party as a Kentucky congresswoman. She also would be the second woman in Kentucky history to represent the state in Congress.

In Hawaii, State Sen. Patsy Mink, 36, the first woman of Japanese ancestry to be licensed to practice law there and the first to serve in the state legislature, is a Democratic candidate for Congress.

Already assured of a seat in Congress is a 55-year-old Georgia grandmother, Mrs. Janet Merritt of Americus, a Demo-

BAKERY FIRM HEAD SUICIDES

OLD WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—The 53-year-old president of a holding company which owns bakeries in Allentown and Pittsburgh, Pa., was fatally wounded outside his home Monday by a bullet in the head.

The victim, Howard C. Hartman, committed suicide, police said.

He was found unconscious on the lawn with a revolver beside him by a son, Christopher, 20. The youth said he was watching the World Series on television when he heard a shot and ran outside.

Hartman was president of Normaco, Inc., a company with headquarters in Waukesha, Wis. Under Hartman's leadership it acquired Fastnachts, Inc., a doughnut producer in Allentown, and Duquesne Bakers in Pittsburgh.

In addition to the Pennsylvania holdings, Normaco owned the Illinois Felt Co. of Chicago; Dugan's Bakeries of Queens Village, N. Y.; and Goddard's Bakery of Chester, W. Va.

Hartman's wife, Frances, and daughter, Jane, 17, were in Florida. Another son, Burr, 21, is a student at the U. S. Naval Academy.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Novelist H. H. (Pat) Frank, 57, author of "Alas Babylon," and other novels, died Monday of inflammation of the pancreas.

He has no Republican opponent.

The first Negro to serve in the Iowa legislature may be a woman, Ms. Willie Stevenson Glanton, a Des Moines attorney and wife of Municipal Judge Luther Glanton. She was the first woman prosecutor in Des Moines municipal courts.

The office of secretary of state in New Mexico has been a woman's world since 1922 and it's going to stay that way at least for two more years. The current officeholder, Mrs. Alberta Miller, a Democrat, has for her opponent Miss B. Lyman, a Republican.

The candidates for the same office in South Dakota are Miss Alma Larson, 32, a Republican, and Mrs. Travis Lewis, a Democrat.

In Arizona, Mrs. Jewel Jordan, a Democrat, is running for an eighth term as state auditor with Republican Robert Hubbard as her opponent, and Mrs. Sarah Folsom, a Republican, is seeking to unseat Democrat W. W. Dick as state superintendent of public instruction.

BURR PLAYING LAST SEASON AS P. MASON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Raymond Burr, the eminent television barrister who in seven years has never failed to win a case, came to town the other day long enough to be master of ceremonies at a dinner for Medal of Honor winners. He confirmed reports that he, too, believes he is playing his last season as "Perry Mason."

Without a trace of regret, Burr said, "I think this year will wind it up. And, as you know, there are a number of other projects I've been interested in for some time."

There are, of course, Burr's flourishing art galleries and his interest in legal aid organizations, stimulated by his part in the courtroom series.

Will be missed

"And I've been talking with Don Feddersen (a TV producer) about a new series," Burr said. "It's working title is 'The Power' and I'll play the governor of a state."

In addition to numerous "Perry Mason" fans who have faithfully followed the CBS show, there will be many veteran actors and actresses who will miss the show.

Gail Patrick Jackson, executive producer of the series and one of its owners, is a former motion picture star who has great loyalty to old friends.

She has always made a special point of hiring, whenever possible, some of the people she calls "old-timers — people who were acting when I was." Some of them are semiretired and, often, well-to-do, but the acting urge remains strong.

COLLINS IS ILL

Often such familiar motion picture faces as Conrad Nagel, Neil Hamilton, Arlene Judge, Stuart Erwin and Mae Clarke pop up in character parts.

This season the name of Ray Collins, who through the years has been playing Lt. Tragg, Perry's police antagonist, has been kept in the star billing, along with Burr, William Hopper and Barbara Hale. Collins, in all probability, will not appear in a single episode this season. He has been plagued by poor health for the last couple of years, and most often the policeman's role these days is played by Wesley Lau.

The Houston Colts and New York Mets divided their 18 National League games this year.

Harrisburg Show Will Open Friday

HARRISBURG (AP)—A record 1,043 horses are entered in the Pennsylvania National Horse Show, which will open Friday, a day earlier than originally scheduled.

The extra day was made necessary by the extremely high number of entries, officials said Monday. The annual event runs through Oct. 24.

The show's international jumping competition will begin on Saturday. Nations with teams entered in the jumping events are the United States, Mexico, Canada, Brazil and Argentina.

Delay Program To Assist Draftees

WASHINGTON (AP)—Start of an experimental program designed to help some 60,000 young men qualify for the draft has been delayed, the Army said Monday night.

Originally scheduled to begin at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., in January, the program had a two-fold purpose: To reduce reliance on the draft by expanding the pool of qualified volunteers and to bring young men whose mental and physical capabilities were below draft standards to the point where they were qualified.

The special training was to be limited to volunteers and to those whose deficiencies could be corrected in six to 12 months. The Army cited congressional wishes for a review of the project.

The U.N. has a post office originating its own stamps.

DEBBIE, LIZ DINE ON SHIP

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor and Debbie Reynolds — former wives of Eddie Fisher — sailed the Atlantic together and said they never mentioned the name of their former spouse.

"It just didn't come up," said Debbie today. "If you don't forget what's in the past, how can you look forward to the future?"

After the death of Miss Taylor's third husband, Michael Todd, Fisher left Debbie and became Liz's fourth husband. Debbie married American shoe magnate Harry Karl.

After Liz divorced Eddie, she married British actor Richard Burton.

Last week the Burtons and the Karls sailed to Europe on the Queen Mary.

"I sent a note to the Burtons inviting them to join us for cocktails," said Debbie. "And do you know what? The Burtons had the very same idea. The stewards actually crossed in the corridors with our notes."

After cocktails, the couples dined together. On the last night aboard they had dinner together again and didn't part until near dawn.

The Burtons got off in Cherbourg, to make a movie in Paris. The Karls came to England.

White told newsmen he was sure the 185-foot long bomber will reach its designed maximum altitude of 80,000 feet and top speed of 2,000 m.p.h. Monday's test was the highest and fastest of the three flights.

Bury Cantor With Wife, Daughter

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The body of Eddie Cantor lay entombed today with those of his wife of 48 years, Ida, and one of their five daughters.

Private services for the 72-year-old entertainer were held Monday at Groman Mortuary.

Cantor died of a coronary occlusion Saturday. He had suffered from a heart ailment for nearly 11 years.

Cantor's wife died in 1962 of a heart ailment. Their daughter, Marjorie, succumbed to cancer in 1959. The three are entombed at Hillside Memorial Park Mausoleum.

This is a time for a rebirth of the great American purpose—freedom not just for America but freedom for all men in a world of peace.

It is time for rededication to the principles, the character, the morality, that made America great.

It is a time not for the New Deal of the 30's, not for the Fair Deal of the 50's, not for the fast deal of Lyndon Johnson, but for the honest deal of Barry Goldwater.

The decision you will make on November the third could be the most important decision you make in your life, because the man you select as President of the United States can make decisions that will affect the future of your job, of your freedom, of your very life.

I say to you: Look at this man. Listen to him. Forget the too harsh criticisms of his critics and forget the too kind judgments of his friends.

Judge him as he is. Make this decision yours. Don't let someone else decide for you.

I present him to you simply in this way:

He is a man with the character, integrity and courage to lead America responsibly and well.

And he is the man who, after the greatest campaign in history, will be Mr. President—BARRY GOLDWATER.

TURN TO POPE IN ECUMENICAL COUNCIL RIFT

By BENNETT M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — An appointment with Pope Paul VI was arranged Tuesday by Joseph Cardinal Frings of Cologne, Germany, one of a group of progressive cardinals seeking papal intervention in their critical struggle with conservatives in the Ecumenical Council.

Cardinal Frings, who will meet with the Pope this evening, apparently was selected as the progressives' representative at a meeting Sunday in Cardinal Frings' Rome residence.

Fifteen prominent cardinals asked the pontiff to act personally to prevent conservatives on top council commissions from sabotaging the desires of the council majority on key issues.

There was speculation that the Pope had invited the petition from the progressives.

The European, American and Latin-American cardinals petitioned the Pope Sunday night after they met to review what they called "the gravest crisis" of the entire council.

EXPRESS FEAR

They expressed fear that the coordinating commission and the council presidency, largely staffed by conservative Church administrators from the Vatican curia, plan to alter council action already taken on religious liberty, the Jews and the sharing of papal-episcopal power.

They also said "traditionalist elements" want to end the council quickly so as to leave undebated a schema on such modern world problems as overpopulation and birth control.

Pope John XXIII had faced a basic progressive-conservative clash from the very first week of the council in 1962. Joseph Cardinal Frings of West Germany was one of the progressive leaders then who insisted that the 12 council commissions be filled by a vote of all 2,500 council members, rejecting a slate packed with conservatives that the council directorate tried to rush into office.

FOLLOW POPE JOHN

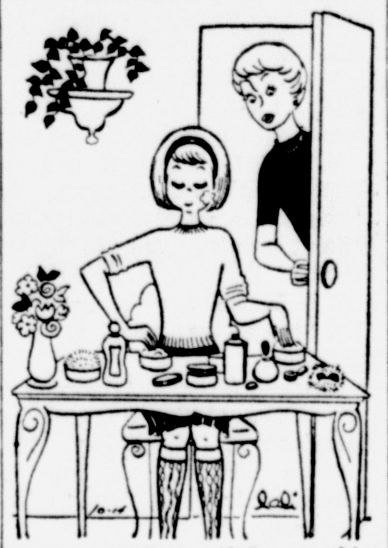

Cardinal Frings was host to Sunday's meeting of the progressives.

During the council's second session last year, the progressive element emerged far stronger in numbers than its bishops had realized. But the conservatives have retained their strength in the council administration as well as in the curia.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

DON'T GET CAUGHT IN THE KOOKIE JAR! A lovely mother writes: Just turned 13, my daughter piles on my skin cream and makeup. Surely the creams can't be doing a thing for her. The makeup looks awful and the lipstick she buys for herself looks worse. If she must use cosmetics—and it seems she must—I'd rather she used the right ones. Your advice, please.

The answer: Girls will be girls, and dabble in the cosmetic jars. But using mother's products is about as kookie as shooting a flea with an elephant gun!

When a girl in her early teens has good skin, she needs a mild complexion soap and a protective cream or lotion. The latter should be formulated along the lines of baby lotion, with a bit of lanolin and antiseptic. And, please note, lots of beautiful models use such formulations. So there's nothing "belittling" about them.

The application schedule reads: Three-a-day soap cleansings; a film of the protective at bedtime and in the morning, when the weather is harsh.

So far, so good. But what if the skin shows signs of disturbance—oil and blemish? Then got a doctor's advice and switch to the corrective measures recommended. Many cosmetic houses supply kits containing several products.

This brings us to makeup, age 13. Why shouldn't she be allowed a pastel pink lipstick on party occasions, if the other girls wear it?

FAVORS MORE AID TO STATES

KING OF PRUSSIA, Pa. (AP) —Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, said Tuesday she would support legislation ear-marking a large part of future increased tax revenues for direct grants back to the states.

In remarks prepared for a Democratic rally here, Miss Blatt said:

"If present rates of economic growth continue, the federal government's tax revenues will increase by roughly $6 billion per year until the end of the decade."

"I am in favor of ear-marking a large part of those increased revenues for direct grants back to the states in proportion to the total taxes they yield to the federal treasury."

She said the states would not have to use these funds for any special purposes designated by the federal government.

"Rather," she said, "They could use them to meet the most urgent problems locally, whether it be for education, or highways, or welfare. Some portion of the increased revenues should of course, be returned directly to the taxpayers in the form of tax reductions."

York Driver In Fatal Accident

WYNDMOOR, Pa. (AP)—A 68-year-old New Jersey woman was killed Monday when her car collided with a tractor-trailer driven by a York County man, on Route 309 Springfield Township, in Montgomery county.

The victim, India H. Smith, of Mantoloking, N. J., was driving south near the Paper Mill Road turnoff when her car was struck in the rear by the tractor-trailer, police said.

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Cecil Grant, 70, of West Chester, was killed by an auto Monday as he was crossing West Chester Pike in West Goshen Township. Grant was a gardener at Rolling Green Memorial Park, a cemetery on West Chester Pike.

WARREN CENTER, Pa. (AP)—Steven Williams, 11 months old, of nearby Little Meadows, drowned Monday in a farm pond near this Bradford County Community. His body was recovered about two hours after the accident.

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 14, the 288th day of 1964. There are 78 days left in the year.

Charge Against Candidate Dropped

FOLSOM, Pa. (AP)—Charges of trespassing against Dr. Leonard Bachman, Democratic candidate for Congress from Delaware County, have been dismissed by a Ridley Township justice of the peace.

Bachman was arrested while campaigning in the Springhill Square apartments, on a warrant sworn out by Paul Gaster, manager of the apartment house.

Vincen A. Mallon, justice of the peace, dismissed the charges Monday at a hearing. Gaster had claimed Bachman, of Bryn Mawr, was annoying residents, some of whom were night workers and had been asleep.

Bachman said he was invited into the apartment building by some women residents who had organized a tea for him.

URGED TO SEEK EXTENSION OF KERR-MILLS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The House of Delegates of the Pennsylvania Medical Society has been urged to seek legislative support for extension of coverage of the Kerr-Mills law.

Dr. Richard A. Kern, president-elect of the society, told the group's annual session the Kerr-Mills law has the organization's full support. The law is a form of medical aid to the aged with state participation.

Kern, who will be installed Thursday night, said:

"In the present administration in Pennsylvania, it (Kerr-Mills law) has been increasingly implemented so that medical assistance to the aged based on this law now places Pennsylvania second in its utilization of this program, New York being first."

"This has proved a sound and workable approach to the solution of this problem in Pennsylvania... it deserves extension including a liberalization of its coverage as a widening experience and sound procedure warrant."

NEW YORK (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson says the late Eleanor Roosevelt was "more than relevant for our times — she was ahead of us."

Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, was among speakers Monday night at a $100-a-plate dinner honoring the memory of Mrs. Roosevelt, wife of the nation's 32nd president.

The dinner was one of several across the nation to benefit the Eleanor Roosevelt Foundation for work in the fields of human rights, world peace, aid to underprivileged children and cancer research.

900 YANKEES CASUALTIES IN VIET NAM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—U.S. casualties in Viet Nam in killed and wounded in the Army alone have amounted to 900 men in the last year, Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes reports.

Ailes told an association of the United States Army chapter meeting here Tuesday night that "over 10,000" Army personnel are in South Viet Nam to aid that government in the war against the insurgents.

"Our advisors assigned to units over there run all the risks of combat," Ailes said. He said the rate of U.S. Army casualties in killed and wounded is mounting.

Ailes added, however, he was convinced of the importance of what the American soldiers are doing in Viet Nam.

U.S. ARMY ADDS 'COPTER UNIT IN RICE BOWL

By HORST FAAS
CAO LANH, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Army has set up a third helicopter company in the largely Viet Cong-controlled Mekong River delta region in hopes of cutting a number of disastrous ambushes against government ground forces.

However, a recent operation on the edge of the Plain of Reeds showed that it may take more than added helicopters to gain the initiative for government forces in the delta rice bowl.

Units from the new company and an older unit took part in a flight to lift 60 government troops into an area 80 miles southwest of Saigon.

DROP TROOPS
Government forces hit ground only 30 minutes after 300 Viet Cong were spotted in the area. While helicopters provided air support, troops jumped out to find themselves in near-neck deep water. Reeds were well over their heads. Although there was sporadic shooting, neither force saw the other, and the helicopters were unable to pinpoint enemy units which escaped. The delta region is only dry about four months out of a year.

Three companies in the 4th Army Corps are responsible for virtually all of Viet Nam south of Saigon. They can be strengthened with additional helicopter units from Saigon and Bien Hoa for major operations.

Helicopter companies normally include about 35 armed and troop-carrying choppers and 250 men.

NEW PREXY FOR CARNEGIE TECH

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The new president of Carnegie Institute of Technology will be Dr. Horton G. Stever, administrator and aeronautical expert at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He was named Monday to succeed Dr. J. C. Warner who is retiring after serving 15 years as Carnegie Tech president.

Dr. Stever, 47, will take over the presidency Feb. 1. He is head of the departments of mechanical engineering, naval architecture and marine engineering at MIT.

James M. Bovard, Carnegie Tech board chairman, said, "In Dr. Stever, we found a dynamic young man who is experienced and knowledgeable in education, administration and governmental affairs."

Dr. Stever, a native of Corn, N.Y., joined MIT in 1941 as

Goes Hard Way To Recover Tickets

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Claude Morris goes a long way to save his football tickets — even to the state crime laboratory.

When fire destroyed the Duncan Manufacturing and Equipment Co. last week, where Morris is manager, it also destroyed four tickets and badly charred 20 others to this weekend's Auburn-Georgia Tech game in Birmingham.

Morris sent the 20 charred bits to the state toxicologist. Tests were used to determine the seat numbers and today the city is preparing duplicate tickets for Morris.

GAME LANDS TO BE ACQUIRED

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania Game Commission is earmarking $1,550,000 for land acquisition under Project 70 for the fiscal years 1964 through 1966.

The commission, holding its quarterly meeting in Meadville Monday, approved expenditure of $300,000 for the 1964-65 fiscal year and $1,250,000 for the 1965-1966 fiscal year.

Specific land to be acquired was not mentioned.

In other action the commission:

1. Voted to establish a $250,000 budget to enable the commission to co-operate with the federal government under the recently enacted Water and Land Conservation Act. This will permit the commission to participate in projects set up under the act.

2. Authorized opening of a number of game refuges and propagation areas for deer. This includes 1,320 acres on game land Number 29 in Warren County.

3. Authorized the purchase of 11 tracts as game land including a parcel of 96 acres in Venango County.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Starting Thursday at Columbus, Ohio, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will make five speeches in the Midwest and Southwest on behalf of Republican Presidential nominee Barry Goldwater and state candidates. Other dates announced over the weekend by the Republican National Committee for Eisenhower: Oct. 22, San Antonio, Tex.; Oct. 23, Oklahoma City; Oct. 24, Wichita, Kan., and St. Louis.

New York City is observing its 300th anniversary this year.

After the war, he returned to MIT as an assistant professor and executive officer of the school's guided missile program.

WOMAN ARTIST SHOT TO DEATH

WASHINGTON (AP) — Georgetown artist Mary Pinchot Meyer was shot to death Monday as she took a sunny afternoon walk along the path of an old canal where she often had strolled with Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Meyer, who would have been 44 Wednesday, was a niece of Gifford Pinchot, progressive conservationist and two-term governor of Pennsylvania, and the daughter of Amos Pinchot, a founder of the Bull Moose party. Robbery apparently was the motive in her slaying, police said.

EX-CON HELD
Within an hour, Raymond Crump Jr., a 25-year-old Washington laborer recently released from a 60-day prison term for petty larceny, was arrested and charged with the slaying. A father of five, he denied any part in the shooting.

Police found no purse or wallet and did not know if the victim, dressed casually in slacks and sneakers, was carrying one. Scuba divers searched the C&O canal and the nearby Potomac River for the murder weapon.

At his arraignment — U.S. Commissioner Sam Wrettle ordered him held without bail — Crump said: "I was down there fishing and lost my rod. I don't know what happened myself. I almost got shot myself."

RADFORD, Va. (AP) — Demolition workers backed off when they uncovered a nest of about 20 poisonous copperhead snakes in a building they were tearing down Monday. The fire department came to the rescue and burned the building down.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Assistant Secretary of Labor Esther Peterson, a Democrat, said Sunday she received a letter at her Washington office asking for a campaign contribution to the Republican National Committee.

Propose Compact On Surface Mines

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma proposed Monday that the Southern Governors' Conference ask the Council of State Governments to develop an interstate compact on surface mining.

He said it would operate similar to the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

Bellmon, the lone Republican governor attending this conference, announced he was submitting the resolution for consideration Wednesday after the governors heard a detailed report on Pennsylvania's new laws regulating strip mining.

H. B. Charnbury, secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Mines and Mineral Industries, said state officials are pleased with the reaction thus far to the state's anthracite and bituminous coal mining laws.

The biggest square on the block.

"When you first buy a Volkswagen Station Wagon, people may wonder who's squarer: you or the car. But don't worry. Time is on your side. Just make sure you have an audience every time you load it up."

A Volkswagen Station Wagon holds twice as much as routine station wagons: 170 cubic feet against roughly 85.

(Which is always good for a few raised eyebrows in the crowd, especially when they see that the VW is 4 feet shorter than regular wagons.)

If you have a crowd of 9 people watching, invite them for a ride. All 9 fit nicely, and everyone gets a window. (There are 21 to go around, plus a hole in the roof so they can look up as well as out.)

If you like to rub it in a little, you can toss around a few numbers like 24 miles to the gallon and 35,000 miles on a set of tires.

And it won't hurt if you mention the air-cooled engine that can never freeze up or boil over.

Above all, you have to be patient with people. In the end, it may turn out that the biggest square on the block is the last guy to buy one.

3 DEFENDANTS FOUND GUILTY

Three defendants have been found guilty in verdicts handed up in two trials in county court. In a verdict Monday afternoon, a jury headed by Francis E. Noble, Gettysburg R. 2, found Estaban Alvarado Barreto, Pomoná, N. J., and Juan Ortiz Penes of Puerto Rico guilty of robbery by force of articles from a fellow migrant laborer. U.S. Space Agency May Be Two Years Back Of Reds In Race To Moon

By JOHN BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. space agency — never really ahead in the race to the moon — has new clues to just how far behind it is. It may trail the Russians by some two years.

The Soviets pointed this out Monday by launching a big new satellite called Sunrise with a big new space rocket—and complicated things by not saying how big either of them were.

They did say, however, that Sunrise carried three men — a pilot, a doctor and a scientist — in a shirtsleeve environment, unencumbered by bulky space suits.

NOT ON PARALLEL LINES

It will be some two years before the U.S. space program duplicates the feat — but the U.S. effort is not designed along parallel lines with the Soviet schedule.

Early next year, the U.S. schedule calls for the first of 10 two-man Gemini flights, culminating in two-week missions for some astronaut teams, and two-day missions for others in which the goal will be rendezvous, docking and maneuver with other space bodies.

Early this year, it seemed that the United States was catching up with the Soviet Union at least. The Soviets had been using rockets with the power of some 800,000 pounds of thrust to put into earth orbits spacecraft weighing about 15,000 pounds.

HAD CLAIMED LEAD

Then in January, the United States fired off Saturn 1 — with 1.5 million pounds of thrust. It put a dummy satellite weighing better than 37,000 pounds into orbit, the world's greatest known weightlifting feat until then, perhaps even now.

That was when Wernher von Braun, who heads Saturn development, said: "We are now ahead of the Russians in cargo-carrying ability."

The entire Saturn program has a long-range goal—the Saturn develop 7.5 million pounds of thrust and is scheduled to hurl a three-man Apollo spacecraft around the moon by 1968, and toward a moon landing by 1969.

EMBARRASSING TO U. S.

The Soviet shot Monday was embarrassing to U.S. space planners, just when their critics at home are loudest, perhaps six months before U.S. astronauts begin the Gemini program with some chance of building up public enthusiasm again.

A stern election-year Congress has already tightened the purse strings for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration—which had to trim its

DEMOCRATIC UNITY IN PA. IN DISPUTE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican Sen. Hugh Scott and his Democratic opponent, Genevieve Blatt, appear to be in disagreement over the extent of unity among the Democrats in the wake of the U. S. Supreme Court's refusal to hear an appeal from Miss Blatt's defeated primary foe.

The appeal had been filed in behalf of Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, who lost the Democratic senatorial primary by 491 votes.

He had asked the high tribunal to review state court decisions ruling illegal, and uncountable, 5,624 votes cast on wrong lines in Philadelphia. The appeal was denied Monday without comment.

CHARGES BIGOTRY

Miss Blatt said the high court action "permits us to devote our full attention to intensifying the campaign effort in the few weeks remaining before Election Day."

"We are confident," she added "that a united Democratic Party—joined by discerning Republicans and Independents—will use the remaining time to forge an impressive triumph Nov. 3 over the Goldwater-Miller-Scott ticket."

Scott, making a strong bid for the votes of Democrats who had supported Musmanno, said primary supporters of Miss Blatt resorted to bigotry in campaigning on her behalf.

"Persons supporting my opponent wanted to know whether Judge Musmanno ever changed his name and where he was born," the senator said in a statement.

He added that "many good Pennsylvania citizens are deeply offended by the manner in which she won the primary."

"If my opponent were elected, does she plan to represent all the people of our commonwealth, or just those whose names do not happen to end in 'A' or 'I' or 'O'?"

Musmanno issued a statement in Pittsburgh calling the decision "just and proper" but that it should "not be interpreted as affirming what happened in Pennsylvania."

"It (the U. S. Supreme Court) merely clears it cannot take jurisdiction," the state justice added.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians stick their nose into American presidential campaigns every four years directly, indirectly or accidentally.

It was direct enough last July when Sen. Barry Goldwater won the Republican nomination and Premier Khrushchev accused him of trying "to enter the White House under the slogans of unbridled anticommunism and war threats."

And the Russian leader likened the Republican convention to a Nazi party rally.

NOT FIRST TIME

Khrushchev has been quiet since. But now Russia has shot three men aloft in a space capsule circling the earth and outdoing anything this country ever attempted.

It isn't clear whether they had to do this right now for scientific reasons, hoped it might add to the wrangle between President Johnson and Goldwater, or just didn't care.

It's not the first time they did this kind of thing in the midst of a campaign. They did it in 1960, when they orbited two dogs. Not to be outdone, the United States shot three mice 650 miles aloft before the campaign was over.

Yet, what the Russians did then was like a quiet afterthought to a bad year that got off to a pleasant start.

In 1960 President Eisenhower and Khrushchev not only exchanged Happy New Year greetings but arranged for Eisenhower to visit Russia in June. Then the roof fell down, or rather the American U2 spy-plane did.

The Russians shot it out of the sky over their motherland in May.

In quick order that month Khrushchev broke up the Paris summit meeting with Eisenhower, denounced him, called off the President's trip to Russia, and cabled Democratic party leaders in this country.

He said "broad sections of the (American) public and many prominent political figures in the United States are seriously concerned" about the Eisenhower administration's handling of foreign policy.

One of those receiving the cablegram was Lyndon B. Johnson, then Democratic leader of the Senate and hopefully but unsuccessfully, as it turned out, seeking the Democratic presidential nomination which John F. Kennedy got.

Johnson denounced the Khrushchev message, saying it was an attempt to divide Americans and cripple their bipartisan foreign policy. This didn't keep Khrushchev from getting further mixed up in the American political pot which was coming to a boil.

EXPRESSED OPINIONS

On June 21 he was expressing hope Americans would elect a president and government that would remedy what he called the mistakes of the Eisenhower administration. He was rebuked for this by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter who accused him of interference in American internal affairs.

Then on July 13 Khrushchev expressed his opinions to a visiting American — Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union — on Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon. The vice president had debated Khrushchev in a Moscow display kitchen in 1959.

Curran said Khrushchev disparaged Nixon but thought Kennedy made "some sense." If this seemed like favoritism, it didn't last long. He had some more to say in August in a speech hoping Americans would elect a president whose policy called for improving relations with Russia.

He indicated neither Kennedy nor Nixon was the man and said it was as difficult to choose between them as between left and right in a pair of boots. He called them both "lackeys of monopoly capital." That was in August 1960.

OTHER DISTRACTIONS

It wasn't all he did that year. In September and October he went to the United Nations in New York and distracted Americans from the campaign with a one-man show which he climaxed by pounding a U.N. desk with his shoe.

It was Premier Bulganin who got directly into the 1956 campaign between Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson.

Several times Stevenson proposed a ban on hydrogen bomb tests. And twice, to Eisenhower's annoyance, Bulganin wrote, not to Stevenson but to Eisenhower, seconding the motion. Bulganin made his letters public before Eisenhower saw them.

BURNED UP IKE

This burned up Eisenhower. He told the Russian to mind his own business.

But before election day a thundering international climax made the presidential campaign look almost secondary. The Russians got involved, but this time they couldn't be blamed for thinking it up.

First, Britain, France and Israel attacked Egypt and Eisenhower told them to back up. Then the Hungarians revolted and Khrushchev crushed them with Russian troops. Americans, who had talked of freeing the satellites, did nothing and could do nothing without risking a world war.

GUEST OF HONOR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy will be guest of honor Dec. 2 at a fund-raising dinner for the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, a hospital spokesman said Monday.

A John Fitzgerald Kennedy Pavilion will be dedicated with the $30-million center.

Monday, some 14 hours after the Soviet launching, a space agency chief James Webb said in a statement that the Russian flight was significant, and "a clear indication that the Russians are continuing a large space program for the achievement of national power and prestige."

Dozen Catholics Begin Civic Study

HARRISBURG (AP)—A group of 12 Catholic clergymen today launched a comprehensive study of the social and civic problems confronting Pennsylvania.

The clergymen, members of the newly formed section on community action of the Pennsylvania Catholic Welfare Committee, said they will ask the cooperation of other denominations in undertaking the study.

Following their first working session at the committee's offices here, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Norbert Gaughan, chairman, said the group will study the areas of public assistance, migratory workers, antipoverty urban renewal and race relations.
